It is also a violation of the Code of Conduct to obstruct the Integrity Commissioner in applying or furthering the objectives or requirements of this Code or in the carrying out of his or her responsibilities (as, for example, providing inaccurate or misleading information to the Integrity Commissioner, refusing to answer inquiries or by the destruction of (records) documents or the erasing of electronic communications).

Section 23: Acting On Advice of the Integrity Commissioner

23.1 Any written advice given by the Integrity Commissioner to a member binds the Integrity Commissioner in any subsequent consideration of the conduct of the member in the same matter as long as all the relevant facts known to the member were disclosed to the Integrity Commissioner, and the information or facts have not changed in the interim.

Section 24: Compliance with the Code of Conduct

24.1 Members of Council are accountable to the public through the four-year election process. Between elections they may, for example, become disqualified and lose their seat if convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code of Canada or for failing to declare a conflict of personal interest under the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act.

- 24.2 In addition to any other consequence imposed by law, Members found to have breached this Code may be subject to discipline, including return of a gift or benefit, removal from a Local Board or committee, loss of Chairmanship, removal from a Local Board or committee, censure, a reprimand or, where applicable, suspension of remuneration paid for his or her services as a Member, for a period of up to ninety (90) days.
- 24.3 The Council shall appoint an Integrity Commissioner to investigate alleged breaches of this Code.
- 24.4 Any organization or individual, including members of the public, Township employees, and Members, who has reasonable grounds to believe that a Member has breached a provision of the Code, may proceed with a complaint.
- 24.5 Complaints must be submitted within six weeks of the matter becoming known to the organization or individual and no more than six months after the alleged violation occurring. No action will be taken on a complaint received beyond these deadlines.
- 24.6 A complainant does not have to pursue the informal complaint process set out in section 25.1 prior to proceeding with the formal complaint process set out in section 25.2.

Section 25: Procedure – Complaints

- e) The complaint shall be filed with the Integrity Commissioner who shall confirm that the information is complete as to a), b), c) and d) of this section. The Commissioner will determine whether the matter is, on its face, a complaint with respect to non-compliance with the Code and not covered by other legislation or policies; and
- f) The Integrity Commissioner may request additional information from the complainant.

Response of Integrity Commissioner of Complaint Outside Jurisdiction

25.3 If the complaint received by the Integrity Commissioner is deemed not to be a complaint with respect to non-compliance with the Code, the Integrity Commissioner shall advise the complainant in writing as follows:

25.4 In the event that a resolution of the complaint is not achieved, any complainant or member may request the complaint be dealt with in accordance with Section 25.1 or 25.2 of this Code.

25.5 If the matter is covered by other policies with a complaint procedure or legislation, the complainant will be advised and directed to proceed in a manner as considered appropriate by the Integrity Commissioner.

Refusal to Conduct an Investigation

25.6 If upon review of a complaint, the Integrity Commissioner is of the opinion that the complaint is frivolous, vexatious or not made in good faith, or that there are no or insufficient grounds for an investigation, the Integrity Commissioner will not conduct an investigation and shall communicate this position in writing to the complainant and the member identified in the Complaint Form/Affidavit.

Opportunity for Resolution

25.7 If at any time, following the receipt of a formal complaint or during the investigation process, the Integrity Commissioner believes that an opportunity to resolve the matter may be successfully pursued without a formal investigation, and both the complainant and the member agree, efforts may be made to achieve an informal resolution.

Section 26: Investigation

- 27.2 If during the investigation process, the complaint is withdrawn, sustained or resolved, the Integrity Commissioner shall report to Council outlining the findings, the terms of any resolution and any recommended action within thirty days.
- 27.3 If upon completion of the investigation the Integrity Commissioner finds that a breach of the Code has occurred, the Commissioner shall report his or her findings to Council including a recommendation as to the imposition of a penalty as set out in the Municipal Act of: a reprimand; suspension of remuneration paid to the member for a period of up to ninety days.
- 27.4 If upon completion of the investigation, the Integrity Commissioner finds that there has been no contravention of the Code, or that a contravention occurred, however, the Member took all reasonable measures to prevent it, or the contravention committed was trivial or committed through inadvertence or an error of judgment made in good faith, the Integrity Commissioner shall set this out in its report to Council.

The time elapsed between Nomination Day in a regular election year and the inaugural meeting of the newly elected Council shall not be included in the time calculation referred to in section 27.
- 28.4 Notwithstanding section 27 of the Code, the Integrity Commissioner shall not make any report to the Council or a Committee thereof or to any other person after Nomination Day in any year in which a regular municipal election is to be held.
- 28.5 Any reports would proceed to the first General Committee meeting held after the inaugural meeting of the new Council.

Section 29: Confidentiality of Complaint Documents

- 29.1 The Integrity Commissioner and every person acting under his or her instructions shall preserve the confidentiality of all documents, material or other information, whether belonging to the Township or not, that come into their possession or to their knowledge during the course of their duties as required by section 223.5 of the Municipal Act.
